

Notes from Swavesey Action for Youth Meeting (SAY)

Tuesday 17th April 2007, 7.30pm
White Horse Public House.

Present

George Gaskin, Deb Gingell, Gillian Hunter, Linda Millar, Emma Sweetman, Rev. Yule

Apologies

Jon Butler, Hannah Elsom, Anita MacDonald, Sue Marriot and James Tate,

Purpose

The main purpose of the meeting was to edit flyer for house drop and parentmail.

Flyer

Copy of draft with art work from Anita MacDonald was not available at the meeting. Text was edited and agreed.

Actions:

- Debbie to obtain updated version, amend accordingly and send out via email to John, Gillian, Jon and Linda for proofing and final amendments before printing.
- Gillian to change document format to pdf
- Linda to get costs for printing of 1200 x 4 colour copies for door drop
- Linda to organise submission to parentmail
- Emma to hand out flyers to young people at Bethel and Club Zero
- 5th June proposed as next meeting – to be confirmed with Jon
- Linda to set up email link: youth@swavesey.org.uk on parish council website
- Debbie and Linda to link up re. distribution

Bank Signatory

Emma agreed to be third bank signatory and received forms

Other Business:

Connections youth bus - Sue Marriot is away on holiday. It is not known whether she has managed to speak with residents at market street about power link up for the bus

Report from Gillian - Jon Butler has agreed to speak to the School Council at the College. Papworth are compiling a questionnaire to try and ascertain what facilities and activities young people want. It may be possible for SAY to utilise same questionnaire.

Gillian has obtained funding from the local network fund for a film project for young people during October half term. It is hoped that this can come under SAY umbrella and go on to inform youth activity for Swavesey festival.

Website - Hannah's husband is unable to help. It was agreed to wait and hope for volunteers with this type of expertise. Meanwhile Linda Miller will organise an email link from the parish council website youth@swavesey.org.uk

End of meeting.